DEDICATION

We are both proud and delighted to dedicate this yearbook to dedication itself, summed up in the person of John T. Connelly. We have all seen him, talked with him, been amazed at his willingness to forego his time and even his meals to keep the Academy running smoothly. Perhaps he has seen or sensed the urgency and necessity of Catholic education in a manner not yet realized by most of us. Of this we are certain: words fall short of adequate description, and, Loyola just would not be the same without J.T. Connelly.

Close only counts in horseshoes; but if it had counted in baseball this season, our team might have been in the running for the championship that they won last year.

Out of the nine losses suffered by the Ramblers, seven were by only one run in very low-scoring games. The opponents' low scores were attributed mainly to the Catholic League's most valuable player, pitcher Charlie Leibrandt; while the Ramblers were victims of their own inexperience.

Only six out of the twenty man squad were seniors; seven were freshmen and sophomores. Leibrandt and Pete Steger were the only seasoned pitchers, supported by rookie juniors Tim Cavenaugh and Mark Bednarz, along with freshman Dave Finzer. The catching chores fell to senior Dan Monckton and sophomores Paul Clower and Steve Smith. First base was covered by senior Pat Dollard, second base by junior Chris Kendall, third base by senior Gary Feiereisel, and they were ably backed up by junior Bill O'Connor. Shortstop was shared by senior Jeff Gall and freshman Joe Davies. The outfield was patrolled by juniors Bill O'Donnell, Bill Palmer, and sophomore Mike Ouska, relieved by senior John Yadgir, sophomore Bob Leibrandt, and freshman Mike Mitchell.

Charlie Leibrandt, Gary Feiereisel, and Chris Kendall were honored by being selected by the coaches of the League to the All-Star Team for 1974. With the experience of this year, next year's team promises to be a top contender for the championship.

It would be too easy to merely say that the Basketball team had one of its most successful seasons without giving credit where it was due. The six main starters were Rick Daly, Tom Arens, Dan Monckton, Gary Feiereisel, Charlie Leibrandt, and Mark Feiereisel. These cagers led the team to its twenty three wins.

Although the team is losing five seniors, there will be no lack of quality in the upcoming squad. There will be a hard fight, though, since there are many fine players for the vacated positions. At this writing, the future looks bright for Ed Condon and Mark Feiereisel.

The 1973-74 Junior Varsity Basketball team was a winner from the start; and a winner at the end with a season record of 10-1. The team had great coaches in Richard Kehoe and Mark Seeberg. This was the first and last season the Catholic League had a sophomore basketball team, and I think our team represented Loyola excellently by winning the entire league. The team did not have one specific outstanding player, but there were many individual efforts.

Bob Leibrandt led the team in rebounds. Although he did not score many points, Bob led the team in spirit. Roy Brandys usually led the team in the scoring column by picking up points from the inside as well as from the outside. A trio of guards often led the team to victory; they were Mark Daniel, Dale Welch, and Terry Cullen. Mark Daniel, one of the fastest men in the league, sparked the team on in defense and led the offensive attack with his agility and quick moves to the basket. Dale Welch was just as quick as Mark, and could shoot from anywhere on the court. Terry Cullen, also a fine outside shooter, got the job done. Other key players were Donn Dack, Mike Cardwell, Jim Poole, and Dan Jagla. Even though this was the only season for this league. Loyola once again proved its excellence in sports.

Terry Cullen

A quick time-out refreshes the players.

BOWLING

The Varsity Bowling Team of 1974 didn't fare too well. Although we did hold a .500 record, we couldn't stop our notorious rivals Gordon Tech and Mount Carmel. This year we were without Immortals Steve Izzo, Bob Nierzwicki, and Bob Morris, but we did gain seniors John Trippi and Marc Rita. Oh yes, who could forget senior Joe Mancuso!

This year our Varsity Team was dominated by Juniors. The dynamic duo of Fred Metzger and Rick Nierzwicki were key factors in the starting lineup, while Frank Moschiano, Chris Perille, Mitch Gilaty, and Bob Tatara were frequent alternates. Although our record was not impressive, it should be noted that the six juniors mentioned will most certainly prove to be outstanding next year, making the '75 season a very hopeful one indeed.

The JV's likewise had an average season, but Freshmen Ron Nierzwicki, Mark VanCalbergh, and Cliff Haggenjos should lead next year's bowlers to victory. Other JV rollers were Jack Scanlan, Daniel Stralka, Chris Ripkey, and John Underriner.

Finally, all of us wish to thank Father Dwyer who throughout the year has guided us to be fine bowlers, sportsmen, and students.

Frank Moschiano

CROSS COUNTRY

Loyola gets a strong finish from John Williams.

What happened? After two undefeated seasons this year's team of Loyola harriers did not win the Chicago Catholic League Championship. Many explanations were proposed ranging from overpracticing to overpartying, but the tradition of runners at Loyola which has been built by Coaches Amato, Morelli, Bueter, and Caccamo assures us that lack of desire on the day of the meet was not the reason.

Chances of coming back up the road do look bright with such sensations as frosh Les Beres, soph stars Barry Sullivan, Bob Connolly, and Tom Sanders, not to mention returning Most Valuable Runner John Williams.

Captain Leroy Steinke and Pat O'Connell, along with other seniors—Jim Reichmann, Dave Williams, Mike Mullen, Pat Hinkamp, Steve Prang, Brian Barr, and Mike Byren—will not get another chance but they have all benefitted immeasurably from their Cross Country experiences at Loyola.

Two harriers try their luck at walking on air.

Coming around the final turn.

Pat O'Connell disproves the slogan "nice guys finish last."

Bill Cerney eludes two would-be tacklers.

Marty Gleason fights force with force as Terry O'Brien closes in to assist.

The 1973-74 football season showed similarities to the previous year. At first, the coaches were very optimistic about the season since, for the first time in Loyola's history, five sophomores were in the starting lineup. The success of the season, or, the turning point happened when the Ramblers, down by two TD's at the half, come from behind in the last minutes of the game to beat Fenwick by a score of 21-14. With outstanding team morale and a paucity of injuries, Loyola finished its season with a 6-3 record.

Because of a yearly event which most people call graduation, Loyola will be losing eight valuable seniors who played a total of twelve positions. Three of these men have received recognition. Mike Denten and Marty Gleason have been awarded All Catholic League honors, while Bill Cerney has been named a High School All American.

Loyola has made for itself a record which just like Tonka Trucks can never be broken. For thirteen consecutive years we have made the playoffs. The future, however, holds tougher competition with Loyola's entrance into the IHSA, but with promising team members like Hobie Murnane, Pat Hansen and center Ralph Gesualdo, we think we can beat just about anyone around, and are eagerly looking forward to next year.

GOLF

Under a new coach, Jim Jackimiec, the Loyola Golf team got off to a good start. The varsity, headed by John Fox, Tim Ratty, Stan Banas, Mark Bohentin, and Willie Stone, showed early strength in the season by achieving an 8-1 record. The junior varsity, headed by Jim Schumacher and Mike Holohan, accomplished an impressive 9-0 season record. In the city championships, the junior varsity finished first with the help of Jim Schumahcer, who sank a six foot putt to become a medalist. The varsity, however, finished fifth playing against fierce competition.

Congratulations to Jim Jackimiec and his successful season in his first season of coaching.

Fletcher Jenkins (4) and Brian Murtha (8) anxiously wait for the puck.

Thanks to the generosity of Coach Jack O'Grady, the hockey team had its opportunity for a successful year. By his planning, the team had a ruthless 75 game schedule, including the Loyola Academy Invitational Thanksgiving Hockey Tournament. As captain and leading scorer, Mark Gantner led the team to many of its thirty five victories. Mark was also a Catholic League All-Star. Ed Sklodowski received Most Valuable Player and Mark Gantner received the Sportsman Award. Paul Freyder and Pat Hansen were recipients of the top Defensive Award. These four men also represented Loyola on its North Team in the annual North-South All Star Game.

Next year Loyola will face sixteen teams, including two or three from Canada. Since Loyola is joining the IHSA, hockey will change its status from a team to a club, but we will still play Catholic League teams. Special thanks should be given to Jerry Dunne who gave the team much of its professional instruction.

This year was a landmark year for the Loyola soccer team. For the first time the soccer team entered into regular league play with four other schools in the Catholic league. Under the direction of coach Jack Knight and with the hard work of more than 30 team members the team wound up its season with three wins and four losses. The team also took third place in the end of the season tournament.

Next year looks much more promising for the team due to the fact that the more powerful teams graduated their first strings this year, while the Loyola team had only 3 seniors. So next year look for Loyola at the top for they still have plenty of talent, although they will miss the leadership of Sabinus Megwa, voted most valuable player, and Jack Cordell.

This year the Loyola swim team ended up with a 3-4 record and finished third in the Chicago Catholic League Championships. At a glance it seems to have been a disappointing season but on the contrary, it was a very productive season. First, the members of the team had to adjust to their new coach, Terry Townsend, and secondly, the squad had only two seniors, Bob Osmanski and John Nora. Therefore we will have a strong senior team next year consisting of Tom Friel, Frank Fiduccia, Gregg Merci, John Nicolau, John Baker, Jim Hickey and Larry Nora.

"I believe that with hard work and good team spirit we will be very representative in the State Championship next year," says Coach Townsend. And I agree. With our move into the I.H.S.A., next year, we will get an opportunity to swim against more schools and will have better competition in the State meet.

This year's coveted John Beall award went to senior captain Bob Osmanski and the Coaches Varsity award went to Julio Garcia. On the Junior Varsity level John Nicolau received the Coaches award and John Baker and Larry Nora were both presented the most valuable swimmer award.

Dwyer, Brian Bidwell, Reid Tatge, John Jung, Bo Kemper, Jim Crumley, Tom Lyman, Ken Galie, Roy Carvatta.

Loyola managed to have another indomitable team this year.With the sole exception of one loss, (only the second in twelve years), the season proved to be a grand success as Loyola reigned as the Chicago Catholic League Champions. This performance is only "par for the courts." Acknowledgements to those responsible for the fruitful year should be given to departing seniors Jim Crumley, Bill Fay, Jeff Jacobs, Mario Moussa, Donal Quinlan, and Mike Sierks. Thanks also should also go to junior Ken Galie, as well as sophomores Bo Kemper, Ed Cruzat, Peter Sullivan, and freshman Joe Berry. Special congratulations go, of course, to Fr. Dwyer.

Such exceptional seasons as the team has encountered in past years could be tougher to accomplish in the future. This is due to Loyola's entrance into the I.H.S.A., a league which offers more talented competition. But with underclassmen possessing dexterity and desire, a good showing can be promised for next year's tennis team.

The 1974 Track Team deserves special recognition in several areas. The team was undefeated in all of its meets. Bob Priske set a school record in pole vaulting - 13 feet. Throughout the season Bob was the number one high hurdler. Sherm Reynolds, famous for pole vaulting, high, long and triple jumps was voted Most Valuable Player. Half-miler Jim Reichmann turned in a 1:58 showing and placed third in the championships. Chris Brennan took the 330 yard low hurdles. Hobie Murnane did very well in shot-put and discus competition.

It's true, the IHSA will bring new challenges with its indoor and outdoor meets. However, most of our top performers this year were not seniors. We're hoping for the best.

The Ramblers had a slow start this season. The pre-season tournament at Mt. Carmel saw the Ramblers take fourth out of eight teams. The team was a young inexperienced team. The season saw Loyola lose to Fenwick, Brother Rice and Mt. Carmel for a 3-2 conference record and a season record of 16-15.

The championship tournament saw the Ramblers in fourth place. The Ramblers worked long and hard to come this far. The teams first high point was the come from behind victory in the Brother Rice game. The Ramblers second high point was the double overtime sudden death victory over Mt. Carmel, 8-7. Loyola came in second place in the tournament and as a result of the mediocre season record, third place in the League. Fenwick took first place and Mt. Carmel took second.

Loyola sponsored a post-season spring tournament which saw the team beat the IHSA Public League state champions.

The Ramblers top scorer this year was Tom Friel. Both Tom Friel and Frank Fiduccia made the consideration list for all conference honors. Shallow end goalie, Ron Golec, actually made all-conference along with deep end goalie, all-state player and M.V.P. of Loyola, Gary Cunningham.

Coach Stelnicki attributed the good season to team work. The Ramblers are only losing a few seniors this year. The team will have an exciting, well experienced team next year which could see the Ramblers winning the IHSA state league.

Tom Friel watches with awe the ability of his teammates.

WRESTLING

If anything is to be said about the 1973-74 wrestling team, it is that they were a young team full of many surprises. Although at the beginning of the season in November the squad had only two returning lettermen, the potential of the team looked quite good. However, many people were not as optimistic, in view of the fact that Loyola's new wrestling coach, Mr. James Giovannetti was inexperienced and so as a result everyone just watched and waited with anticipation. But not everyone just watched and waited, and one such person who took action was a young student teacher named Mr. Charles Rossetti. Mr. Rossetti applied to become a teacher and assistant wrestling coach at Loyola Academy and would have been accepted on his fine wrestling reputation alone but there were no openings for new teachers at that time. So he decided to assist Coach Giovannetti on his own time and as a result before the season was over Loyola's wrestling team, due to the joint effort of both of these dedicated men, lived up to its potential. The Varsity squad placed 7th in the Marquette Christmas Tournament with three 2nd place finishers, Sabinus Megwa, Bob Dreger and Brian Sobeck, and 5th in the Catholic League Championships. Those who placed in the Championships were Bob Dreger and Tim Powers, both taking 1st place, Matt Romano taking 3rd place and Jack Cordell taking a 4th place.

Also during the season Loyola succeeded in beating Mendel, 23-22, for only the second time in 12 years. But these were not the only surprises of the 1973-74 season. The Frosh-Soph team also placed 5th in the Catholic League with Jack Heilingoetter taking a 1st, Mike Conti, and Steve Morrison taking 2nds, and Craig Fallico, Dave Ramos, and Frank Loranger all taking 4ths. Loyola was also the host of the Frosh Tourney for the second year in a row and Loyola did quite well. Bill Elliot and Kurt Hoffman placed 1st, Craig Fallico and Harold Sullivan took 2nds and Ted Ritsos and Frank Loranger all placed 3rd.

After the season at the banquet the Frosh-Soph Coach's Award went to Kurt Hoffman, The Most Valuable Frosh-Soph to Jack Heilingoetter. The Varsity Coach's Award went to Tim Powers and The Most Valuable Varsity wrestler Award went to Bob Dreger.

All in all, Loyola had a good season and with only 6 seniors leaving the outlook for next year, when Loyola will enter the IHSA, seems bright and optimistic.

INTRAMURALS

This year's intra-mural program, with chairman Sam Monoscalco and representatives on all levels, expanded itself in a vast number of sports to satisfy every student. Among the programs were punt-pass and kick contest, basketball, hockey and softball. Though bad weather hindered the playing of the contest and softball, the students went right in with basketball where a good number of students stayed for the three month period. At the conclusion the freshman destroyed the sophomores and the juniors lucked by the seniors, (a bitter blow to all upperclassmen). In the two games both the frosh and junior teams showed superior shooting and ball-handling, though the senior and sophomore teams weren't bad. During the Easter break the hockey program was organized and started when school resumed. Some teams entered to play, others for fun, and still others for the fights. The fights are what made this program well-liked and well-attended. You can always tell good games from bad by the crowd's reactions. The program, though much improved, was still lacking referees and a gym much of the year: gym was revarnishing in December and January and many events in the gym (Tal-Vue and Ramble). But after long and brutal hours of scheduling and making rosters and refining and all that, the intra-mural committee has thanked everyone for their help and hopes they enjoyed it.

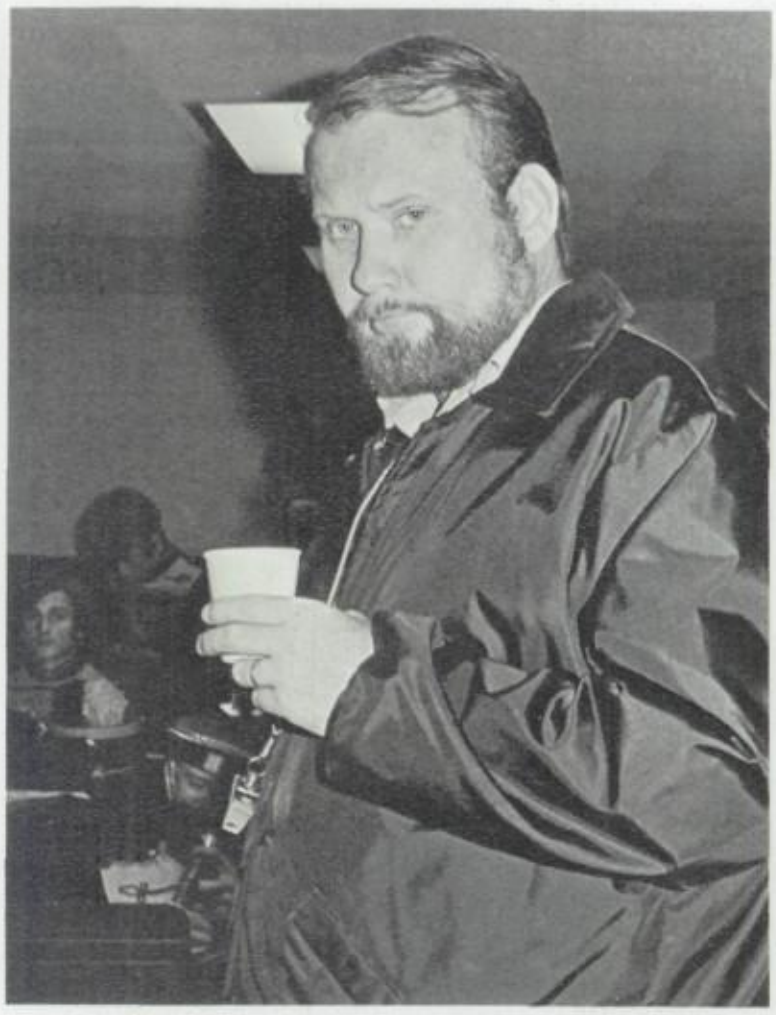
The Winter Band Concert.



A mistake deserves the evil eye from Mr. Ken Bartosz.

Frank Murphy and Mark Krawiec.

Kevin Daly and his mighty cymbal crash.

The Band began their year, as always, with the marching band performing at football games. Many hours of patient practice go into the making of a half-time show. This includes many hours of practice during band class, early morning rehearsals in the frigid cold, plus many hours of practice by the individual members at home. And, of course, we can't forget to mention the tireless work by Mr. Bartosz.

After the season was over, all the band members were auditioned for the concert and symphonic bands. The first performance was the "Pops" concert performed in January. As usual, this was a great success, with an unforgettable finale of the "1812 Overture".

The band also performed with the Glee Club in an April Concert, and three of the songs were taped for national competition. And speaking of contests, the band also played against Notre Dame High School in a contest and won with an outstanding performance.

Jazz Band practiced and performed all this year to ensure a truly excellent band next year. The Jazz Band put on special performances of the jazz rock cantata "Prince of Peace" and provided fine entertainment between acts at TalVue.

All in all, it was a very successful year for the band, and next year should be even better. They're losing a lot of talented seniors; but with some luck, there will be some just as talented incoming freshmen.

Talk about a lousy season! There was so much snow this winter, our transportation couldn't get us through to the slopes. With the exception of a few stalwarts like Dave Marconi in the picture, we have very little to show for our efforts. But just as there will always be sun and rain, so there will be more snow flakes. Next year we'll turn out a better page, hopefully.

GLEE CLUB

John McHugh entertains as a guest star at the Glee Club Concert.

The school year 1973-74 marked the fourth year that Mr. Martens has been director of the Loyola Academy Glee Club and Associate Band Director along with Mr. Ken Bartosz. Once again Mr. Martens hard work with the 23 singers has produced another prosperous year of concerts and productions.

The Glee Club wasn't as active as in past years. However, they did produce two well organized "Spring Concerts" along with the big production of "The Prince of Peace." The first spring concert was with Woodlands Academy and the second was with Regina Dominican.

Camera Club members submitted their best efforts for judgment and keen critics rendered decisions. Another such event was Mini Week and its opportunity for learning. A professional photographer's services were enlisted and he passed on to the club many valuable pointers.

Of course, the big curse on the Camera Club is its altogether inadequate and antiquated darkroom. With the race for space at the Academy, it is unlikely that our plight will be made better right away. But Fr. Reinke, Fr. Arimond, and Br. Bur, we love you still.

With the help of its moderator, Mr. Pasquesi, the LA Chess Club functioned smoothly this year. Bob Campbell served as president, with Bob Tatara to assist him as vice-president. Room 86 was open to all every Tuesday and Thursday after school for both play and practice. A new rating system was established to rank the members on how well they played. Prizes were awarded at the end of the year to club members who participated frequently in various chess activities.

Although the Chess Club did not compete in the Catholic High School Chess League, two successful tournaments were held here in Loyola during the fall and spring. Both teachers and students played. Trophies were awarded to the top finishers of the two tournaments.

Next year's plans include Student-Faculty Chess Matches, more large Chess Tournaments, and competition with other High Schools.

Loyola's Forensics team continued their unprecedented success in the C.C.F.L. with the winning of league championship by the varsity team for the second consecutive year, and the fourth year in the last five. Sweeping all four tournaments, the team qualified seven members for the National Championships held in New Orleans.

At the novice and junior varsity levels, interest and success rate continued high with hopes for continued excellence in the years to come.

This was Loyola's first year back into the Debate Division of the Chicago Catholic Forensics League. For the season, our seven teams had an overall record of 30-40. John Quinley and Dan Fiduccia qualified as the second alternate team for the National Catholic Forensics League Championship Tournament. The team, coached by Mr. John Preas, Mr. Terry Brennan, and Mr. Sal Martinez, also competed in Wisconsin this year. Loyola also had six novice teams that had a season's record of 26-28. The process of re-building Debate at Loyola has begun, and hopes are high for a strong team next year.

SCAFFOLDING CLUB

The Scaffolding Club received its questionable start three years ago. It was Christmas time when a group of people who were sophomores were drafted for a task by a man then known as Mr. Stoeger. The task involved hanging a banner from the ceiling in the school chapel, but the difficult part was that the ceiling towered about thirty feet high. Since no ladders were about, it was concluded that the thirty foot scaffold would have to be brought to the chapel from the gym.

As the dismantled scaffold was rolled down the hall by this group of people, someone searching for some kind of group identity decided to call it the "Scaffolding Club," and from that day on the group was summoned by either Fr. Stoeger or Fr. Reuter whenever any scaffolding work had to be done in the chapel or gym. This year the club worked in the chapel during Christmas and Easter and in the gym for various social events. As the founding fathers of the club leave Loyola this year via graduation, we would like to wish continual success to its future and to give thanks to Fr. Reuter and Fr. Stoeger for their guidance.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

For over fifty years the National Honor Society has worked to bring the accomplishments of outstanding high school students to the attention of their classmates, their parents, their communities, and the colleges in which they plan to enroll. Election to the National Honor Society has come to be recognized as one of the more significant honors a high school student can receive. Membership in the society, however, is more than an honor - it carries with it a responsibility and an obligation to promote the qualities which are the basis for election - leadership, character, scholarship and service.

At Loyola Academy eligible students are invited to submit their qualifications, and they then are voted upon by members of the faculty with the aforementioned qualities the criteria for selection. Members of the National Honor Society contribute many services to Loyola Academy, most significant of which is the implementation of the tutoring program.

This year marked the second volume of the PREP REVIEW. Under the editorship of Mike Murray, the staff put out five issues. Beginning with a new printing process, the REVIEW examined throughout the year such issues as Watergate, Senior Prom, Loyola Student Handbook and THE EXORCIST. Surveys were taken on Watergate and on activities at Loyola. Editorial assistance was provided by Dan Fiduccia, Reid Shaw and John Keating. Dave Burik, Greg Opelka, and Frank Santamarina consistently came through with articles.

As for the PREP WEEKLY, Jim Hillsman and Mike Daly produced issues throughout the year, with their staff. A WEEKLY first was the Christmas locker contest. The format of the WEEKLY was also changed and included a more extensive use of photography. Mr. James J. Velasco was editor of both papers for the fourth year.

Through thick and thin, this energetic group of cheerleaders kept right on truckin'. With captains Sam Monoscalco and Sue Nixon, the group showed up at football games, basketball, swimming, wrestling, cross-country, soccer, track, water polo, and many other events too numerous to mention. Under the guidance of Mrs. Nixon (known to the cheerleaders as "mom"), they cheered throughout the whole game or match whether win or lose. The cheerleaders consisted of six Marillac and five Regina girls. While the boys were nine seniors and four juniors. Besides cheering at games, the girls had a pom-pom squad which did different routines at half-times of football and basketball games. Several times our pom-pom squad and Marillac's pom-pom squad combined to give the crowd a double thrill. The squad even had the help of the Northwestern cheerleading squad so we would have that professional look. They showed us more elaborate mounts and jumps, helped on our cheers, and made us realize we are an organized group able to do anything.

The cheerleaders had a long and fruitful season under Mrs. Nixon and hope their leadership will inspire others to join and lead this school on to victory.

Under the leadership of Father Paul Clifford, several young men engaged themselves in the business of forming a Christian Community among themselves. But if it were only among themselves, it would be defeating its own purpose. Therefore, the group extended itself to helping the needy of Chicago. Even though the effort only dented the real needs of Chicago's poor, SOMETHING was done. The group is anxious for new members, but only the serious minded need apply.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The General Assembly conducting business.

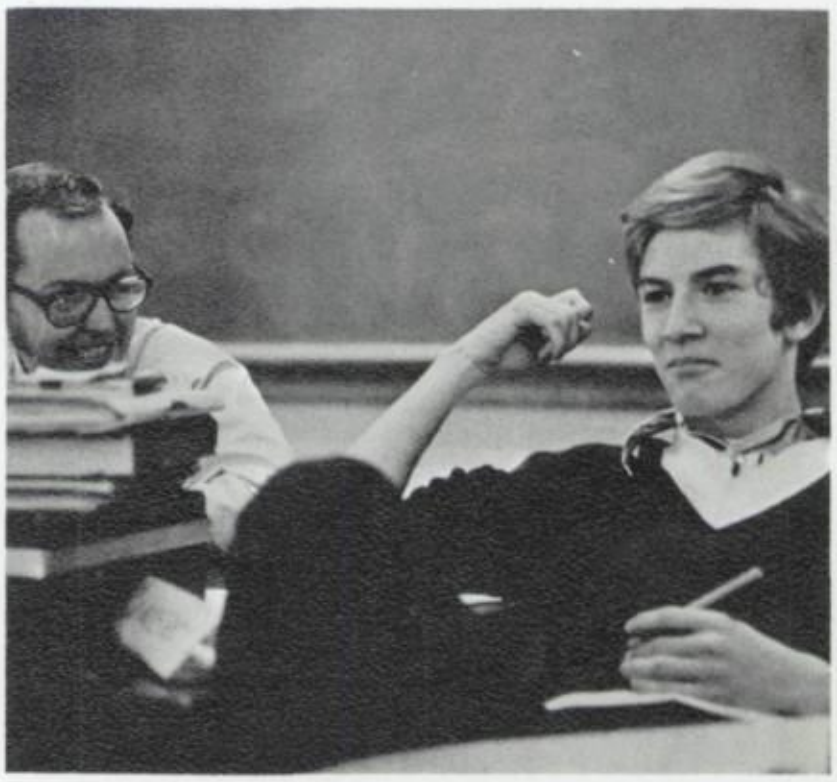
The Big Four: Rich McMenamin, Treasurer; Bob Hillsman, President; Larry Pontarelli, Vice-President; and Jim Hughes, Secretary.

Student Council completed its second successful year under the new caucus system. The Council's work ran the gamut from the installation of a drinking facility in the cafeteria to the sensational Heartsfield concert. The usual social activities were planned and run well (films, coffeehouses, dances), as well as a special week of Homecoming festivities and an expanded intramural program.

The efficiency and responsibility of the council was exemplified by their work with the administration, the Open House, and the planning of Mini-Course and Festival of the Arts weeks.

This year, the council was characterized by concerned, questioning debate centering around social issues and problems of our time. The council moved beyond the realm of 1100 N. Laramie Ave. and the representatives' concern spanned issues from the impeachment of President Nixon to work with the United Farmworker boycott. Work in conjunction with Sodality produced the most successful Food Drive in many years.

A special note of recognition should be given to the officers: Bob Hillsman, Larry Pontarelli, Jim Hughes, and Rich McMenamin. Their dedication and effort provided a worthy example of teamwork.



Humorous Hughes delights Mr. Bohan with a sly comment.

HOMECOMING

An Injun' Summer was presented by the Senior Class of 1974 at the Homecoming Dance. The unique decorations including some special "blacklite" effects set the stage and FLIGHT provided its familiar versions of familiar tunes which have made them a mainstay of North Shore dances. The consensus of senior opinion was that the pre-dance warm-ups supervised by the Wilmette Boys were as much a part of the evening's frivolities as the dance itself.

The first theatrical production at Loyola this year was "You're A Good Man, Charlie Brown" presented on October 26,27,28. The play, a musical, was directed by Ray Rayner of WGN-TV and is based on the characters of the Peanuts comic strip. The cast included Tom Schumacher as the depressed and inferior Charlie Brown, Chip Barry as the lovable and blanket-loving Linus, Jerry Murphy as everyone's favorite beagle, Snoopy, and Pat Nugent as the musically-inclinde Schroeder. Two girls from Regina also turned in magnificent performances in making "Charlie Brown" such a hit: Denise McGowan as Lucy and Bridget Hull as Patty.

The play was superior in many ways--effective staging, lush lighting, a beautiful set, bright musical accompaniment and an even brighter crew of stage hands and props people. No one who saw it, whether a Peanuts fan or not, can forget the lunch bag over Charlie Brown's head; the Book Report; the nightly drama of the leaf; the red baron bit; the 'happiness' finale. It was truly a great beginning to Loyola's fine arts program for 1973-1974.

It's always a great time when Talvue comes to town. Talent from north, south, east, and west converge on Loyolas 25 acres and in various ways show us who's got the gifts. The 1974 edition of Talvue was no exception to the rule. Woodlands was there and so was Regina. Loyola of course was on hand as host and competitor. Holy Family gave us a look at another culture. All in all it was a great evening and everyone was sad when the last note was sung.

The world of comic strip characters unfolded at this year's Bal Masque. It was the first major dance in several years that was held in the cafeteria. No one, however, seemed to mind. The tremendous job of decoration lended itself to a warm and friendly atmosphere.

Great imagination and effort showed in the tremendous array of costumes displayed at the dance. During the course of the evening there were visits from Li'l Abner, the Pillsbury Dough Boy, Hagar the Horrible, a funeral procession and the devil (offering free possessions). Prizes were awarded for the most original costume, the costume which best illustrated the theme of the dance, etc. Ask anyone who attended and he'll agree–this year's Bal Masque was super!

OPEN HOUSE

Every year, usually in October, Loyola Academy organizes an Open House for incoming freshmen and their families. The purpose of this evening is to give interested eighth grade students a chance to observe Loyola before deciding where to apply. An enormous contribution to the success of the Open House each year comes from the student body. To make sure that the interested parties see as many of the activities displayed as possible. ushers are needed to escort them throughout the school. These ushers are all students of Loyola. They are also needed to set up and operate the displays of the various activities of the school. These students, who volunteered their time in order to carry out an important facet of the Loyola year, deserve special thanks.

HELLO DOLLY

What a cast!

Mike Connolly, Sam Monoscalco, Rob Latousek, and Mark Meyers demonstrate fancy footwork.

Maureen O'Grady seems pertrubed at the humor of Donna Welch.

For years now, Loyola Academy has been producing spring musicals that shook the stage of Loyola, and one that lit the faces of many people was the musical "Hello Dolly." There has never been a play that gathered so many different people together for one specific purpose. That purpose was to put on a successful musical.

Not enough people realize the satisfaction one gets from being in a play. The good feeling of meeting new friends, knowing you need them and most important knowing they need you. There has never been a play in which so many smiling people got together and created one BIG smile.

The one person who was responsible for this smile was our own director, Fr. Reuter. Without him Loyola plays just wouldn't be plays. Fr. Reuter in not only a priest, but a friend as well. He is not only interested in putting on a play, but also tries to help students understand themselves and others. His interest in us, as students, is why we put on successful plays. Our productions aren't just for us, but also for Fr. Reuter.

For the seniors, "Hello Dolly" was the last high school play, but we'll all have to agree it was the best.

HEARTSFIELD AND # KRACKER CONCERT

Loyola's second annual concert, held on March 8, proved to be as successful as the first. Sponsored by the Student Council the two groups featured were HEARTSFIELD and KRACKER. Heartsfield, the midwest's hottest top rock band, is a six man band which originated in the Chicago area over a year and a half ago. The group blends pure harmonies, sweet guitar playing and unique lyrics that solidify and enhance the groups total sound. Their debut album, "Heartsfield" won them nationwide fame.

Kracker is a hard driving, rock and rollicking, five piece band. The group, which formed in Miami in 1971, was the back-up group for the Rolling Stones during their European Tour.

The over 1,000 people who sat in the gym that Friday night, seemed to thoroughly enjoy the concert. Special thanks should be given to the Student Council officers who worked hard to make the concert such a success.

FOLK DAY

The primary reason for the existence of "The American Folk Tradition" was to bring great songs, performed by true artists, to students throughout Illinois. The concept of "The American Folk Tradition" solves the logistic and financial problems which prevent all but a handful of students from seeing, hearing, and questioning artists performing American folk music. Fred Holstein, Art Thieme, and Ed Holstein came to Loyola to discuss and perform American folk music, the soul of our nation. The program was entertaining, but above all educational. Being American folk music, it could not help being both of engrossing and didactic value. It was simple, bold, realistic, and direct. The educators/artists in this program are all professional performers of traditional folk music. Their spectrum ranges from performance to instruction. They demonstrably have the gift to involve students. It is more than obvious that "The American Folk Tradition" was no concert. It is rather an instructive experience beyond the world of the classroom.

MASS OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

Fr. Gschwend talks to the freshmen.

In a serious mood, we betook ourselves to the Mass of the Holy Spirit one September morn. Our reason for going was to pray for a most serious intention: to see and to love the truth. The year is long, the problems are many. Help us, Lord, in our confusions.

TULIP TROT

Mike Halloran looks on as his date gets "in to it".

Jeff Kelly's eyes should be on someone else.

May 4th was the evening the Torch Club turned Loyola into "The Shire." The theme of the 1974 Tulip Trot was THE HOBBIT. The question most asked of the general chairmen, Willie Stone, Bob Berry and Tim Kelly, "What is a Hobbit?" The answer was simple–see the decorations chairman, John Haben, Dave Ford and Chris Kelly. Being trapped within their giant castle (the best centerpiece ever) they could only send the inquisitive to the music chairman and creator of the theme, Mike Hennig.

Hobbits are little people, who don't like to hurry and love to laugh, eat, drink and have parties; which sums up what the participants of the dance were like.

A good time was had by all and special thanks were extended to Dan Halloran, Jim Hughes, Brian Foley, Chip Barry and Rob Latousek.

It was the crowd that made it a terrific Tulip Trot.

MINI COURSE WEEK

Steve Teitra entertains at the Folk Festival.

Tom Gavin planning his strategy.

The purpose of Loyola Academy's "mini-course week" is defined as: a concentrated, short term learning activity, usually related to a single concept or topic of study. The "mini-course" can take many forms. It can be a short unit, one facet of a traditional course, or the content need not be related to a traditional discipline. The courses are built around various objectives-academic, non-academic, service, avocational, vocational and communications. The courses can be of varied length, ranging from two to three full days to a few hours a day for a week period. They can be offered in allotted times during school hours or in the evening.

The aims of our program are: 1) To provide for students learning opportunities which are not provided in the traditional curriculum. 2) To provide pursuits of all kinds, inside and outside the confines of the school building. 3) To provide additional educational experiences that are relevant and meaningful to students. 4) To enable students to have access to qualified resource persons in the Chicago metropolitan area. 5) To allow students the opportunity to demonstrate that they can be responsible and accountable for a portion of their education. 6) To allow students to pursue interests without the pressure of grades and final examinations. 7) To allow instructors to teach courses in which they have a personal interest. Lastly, 8) To promote a unified Loyola community–students, teachers, counselors and administrators.

FESTIVAL OF THE ARTS

Festival of the Arts was Loyola's second annual exploration into artistic expansion for its students and faculty. Many opportunities were made available both for artistic creativity and plain enjoyment. The 45 color and black & white photos that comprise the 1973 Kodak National Scholastic Awards Photo Contest were put on display. Noontime events allowed everyone to learn about and get inside the world of art, drama, music, and film. Evening events featured performances by Loyola performance groups. And throughout the entire week, John Geis presided as our artist in residence. John, a Loyola alumnus and recent graduate from the University of Dayton, is the holder of a degree in Fine Arts. During the week, he taught and demonstrated such art forms as water colors, acrylics, and silk screening; John also exhibited many of his own works. A coordinated effort by all concerned helped to turn this into an exciting and informative diversion from everyday academic concerns.

ROCK CANTATA

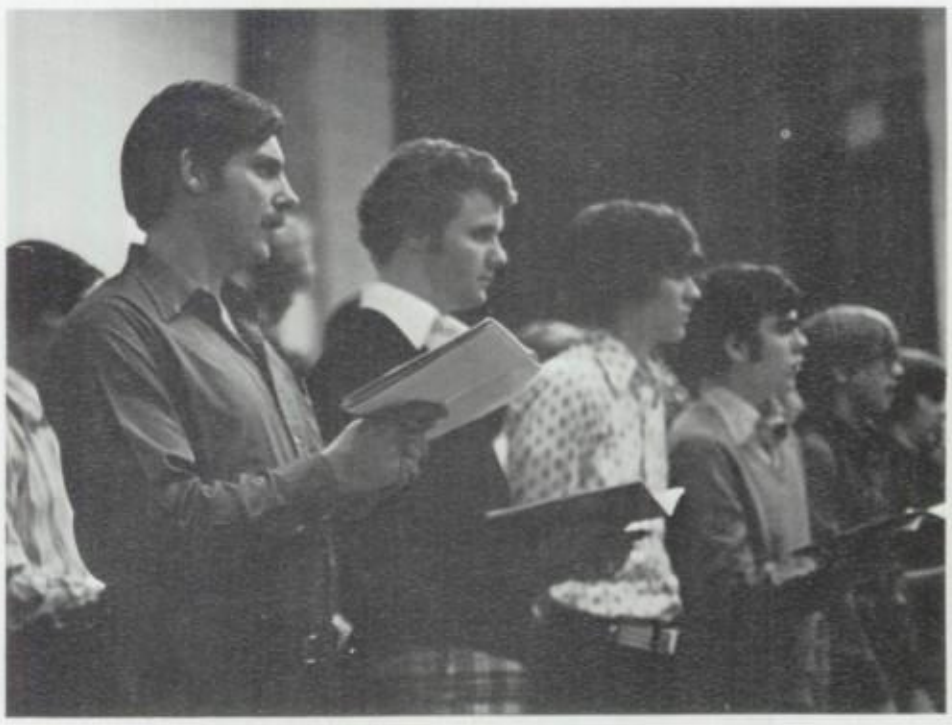
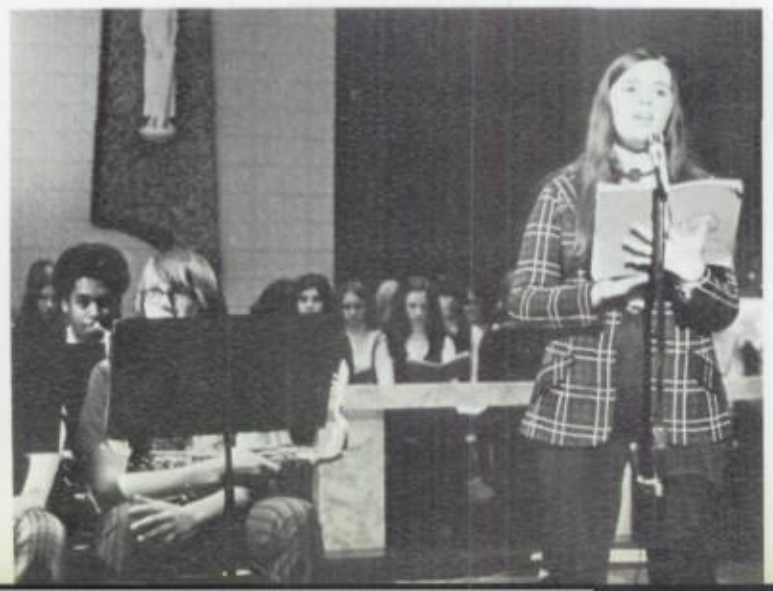
The Band and the Board of Religious Affairs teamed up in December to present an Advent piece with a modern flavor. For three evenings the chapel "rocked" with song. Each evening drew an even bigger crowd than the previous and by the third night, people had to be turned away. The Rock Cantata was certainly different, yet not irreverent. It seems well worth doing again.



Even Mr. Martens sings.

Paul "Scrooge" Nuccio.

Steve Hardy "jamming" with the Jazz Band.



Ann Kelly, soloist.

PROM

Joe Bianco, Rico Mills, Jeff Gall and their dates.

The dance at its best.

Tim McNulty hands out the bid to Martha Garvey and Bob Berry.

Pat O'Connell "manhandling" Patti Allabastro.

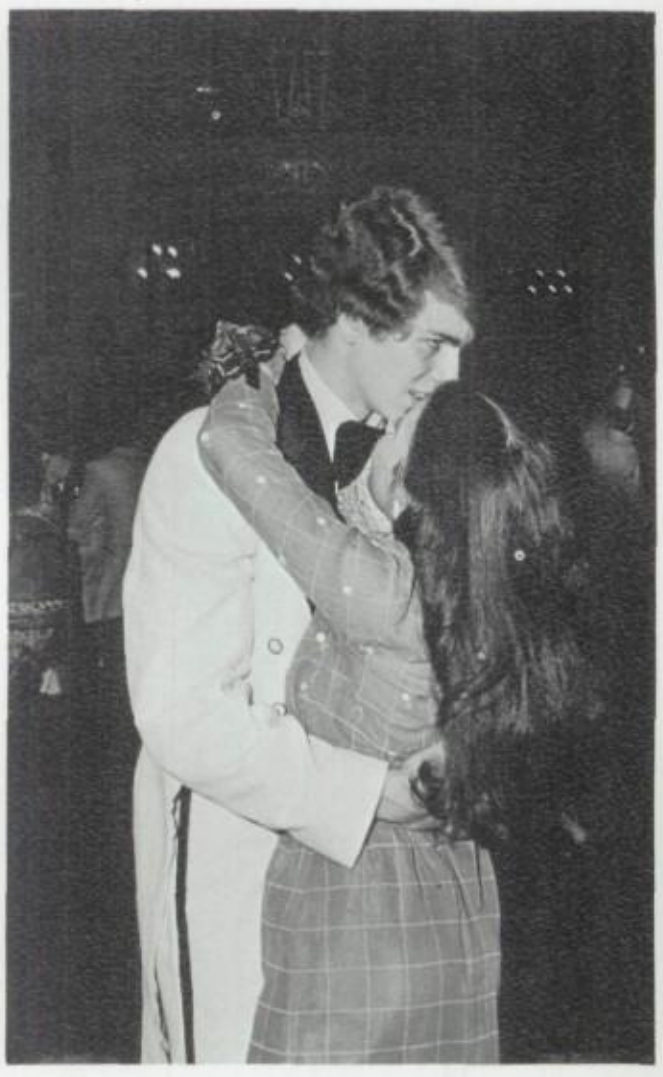
Standing: Jeff Jacobs, June Traina, Mike Garvey, and Pat Stanton. Sitting: Nary Ann Barasa, Rene Laviollette, Mike Garofalo, Bob Chapman, and Terry Selfridge.

What a night and what a day! Those words are an understated account of what the senior class experienced during the prom and its after effects.

Such an occasion was eagerly anticipated and surpassed its expectations. Everyone cherished the fine food, the fantastic music, and the exquisite ballroom features. Though there was some grumbling prior to the prom, attendance was maximum and the vast majority were in formal attire.

The after hours of the prom were just "icing on the cake." In the minds of all who attended, the prom will be remembered as an exciting and eventful evening.

Cute Jimmy McAvoy.



Tom McKee and Anna Adler.

Willie Stone dodges from Mary Lambert.

A well-mannered Mark Clark.

Pausing between bites are George Ballentine and his date.

Mark Feiereisel receives a helping hand.

GRADUATION

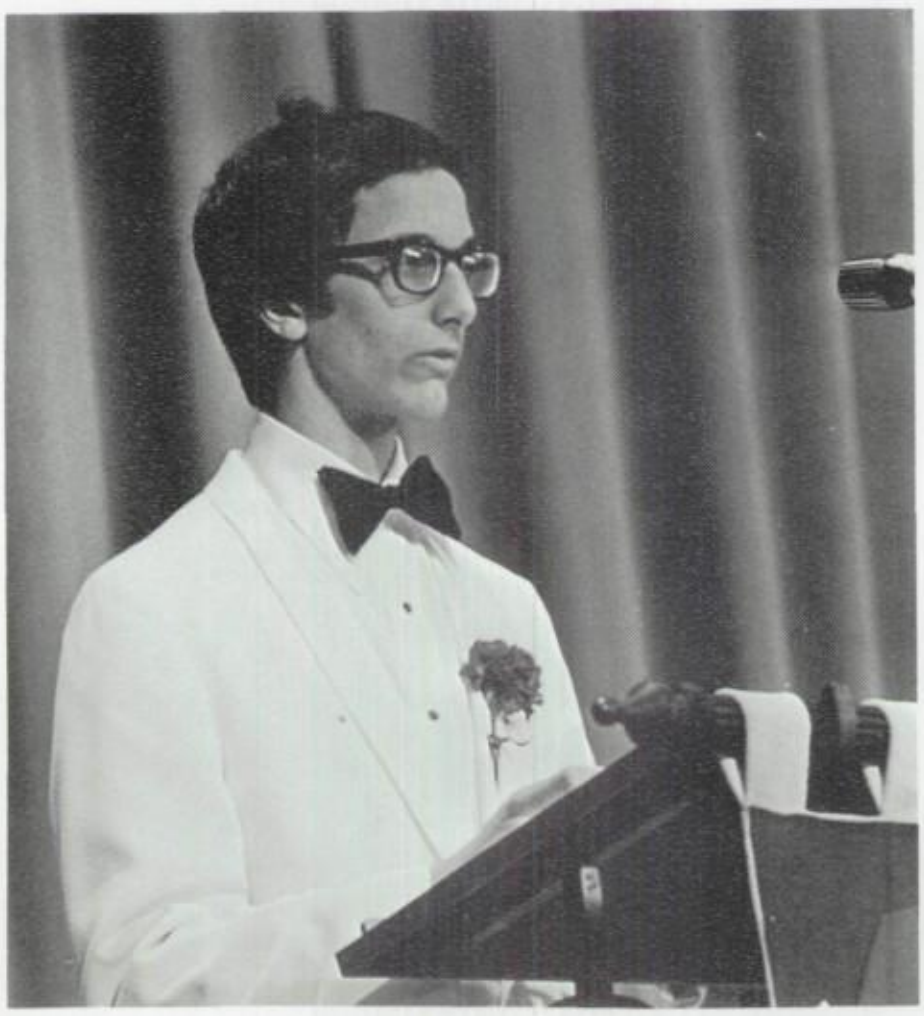
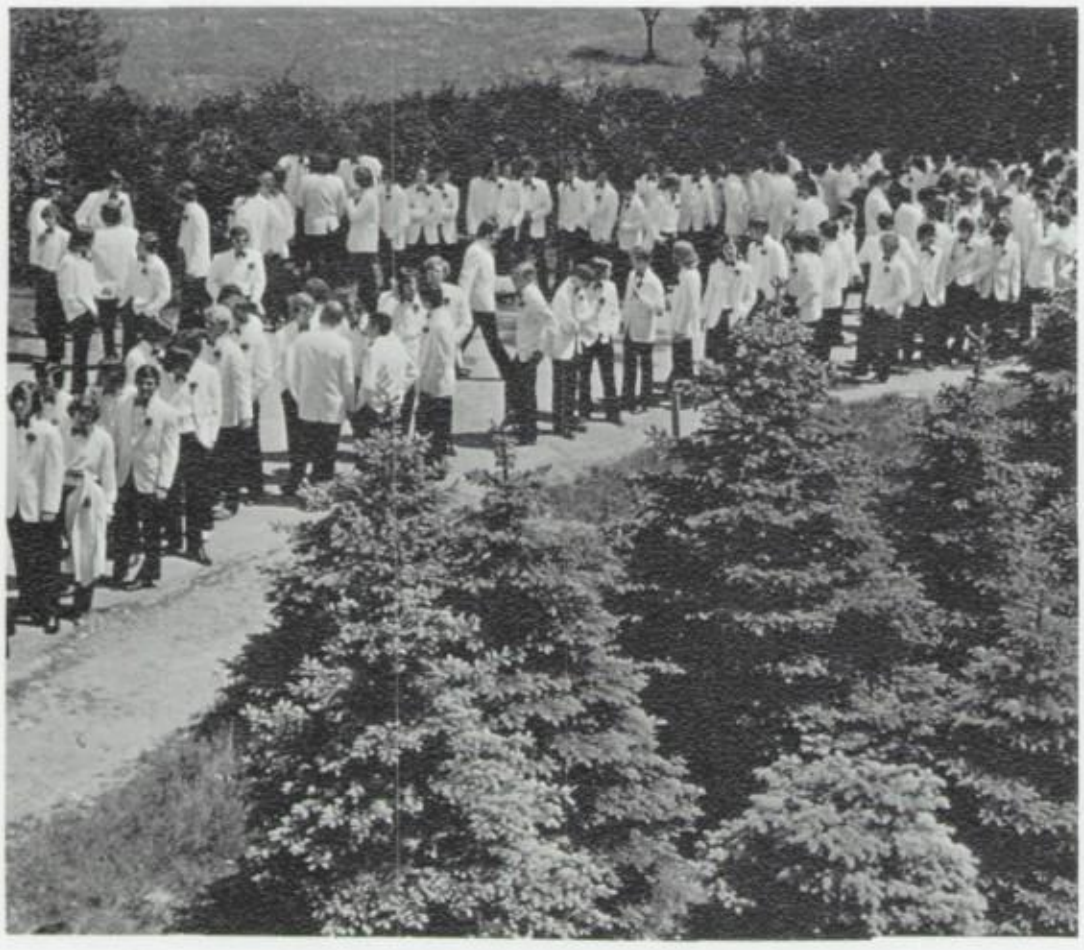
The faculty proceeds to their places at the Mass.



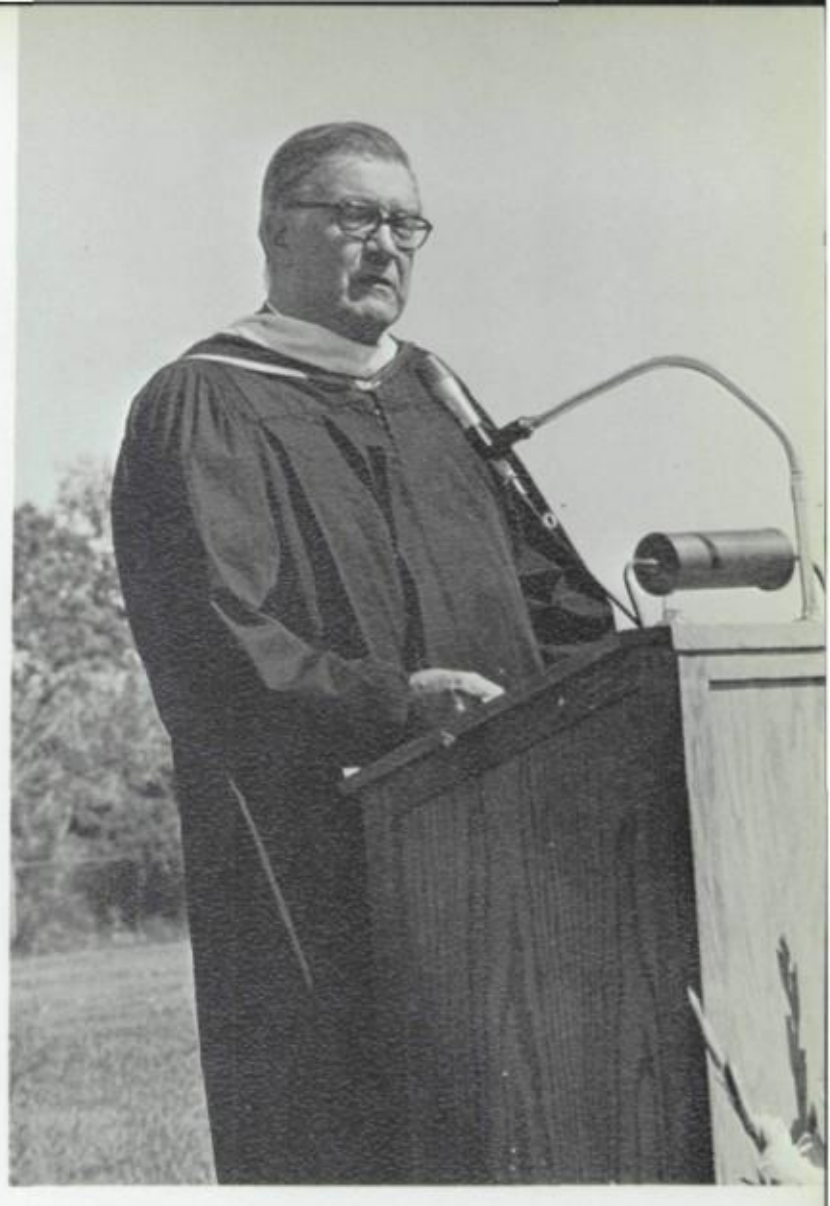
Valedictorian Ken Rodino speaks at the Baccalaureate Mass.

Fr. Stoeger assists Fr. Reinke.

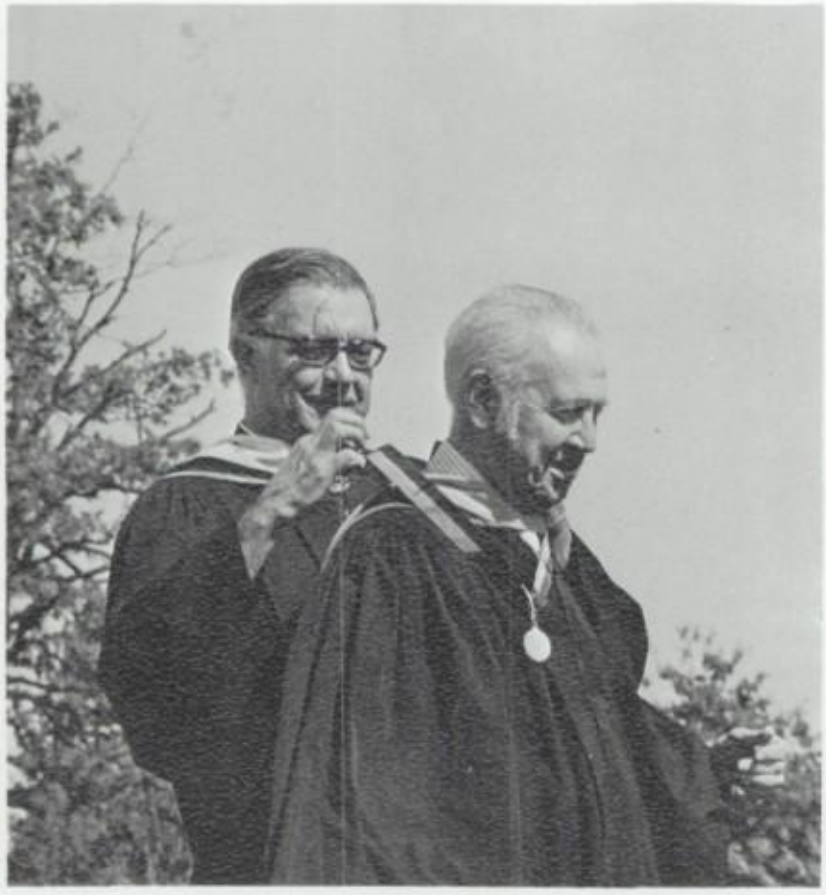
It happens every year, yet every one is different. This year could be remembered as a nice, cool day outside, a record dispatch of diplomas, a farewell to Mr. Roach, or a surprise by a streaker. Whatever it was, it was Graduation '74. Father Reinke was there with Dr. Cornog. A chorus of thousands of brothers, sisters, mothers and fathers, aunts and uncles and grandparents came out to congratulate three hundred and sixty seven graduates who received the parchment. To them, also, the Loyola YEAR offers a toast, a salute, and heartfelt Godspeed.



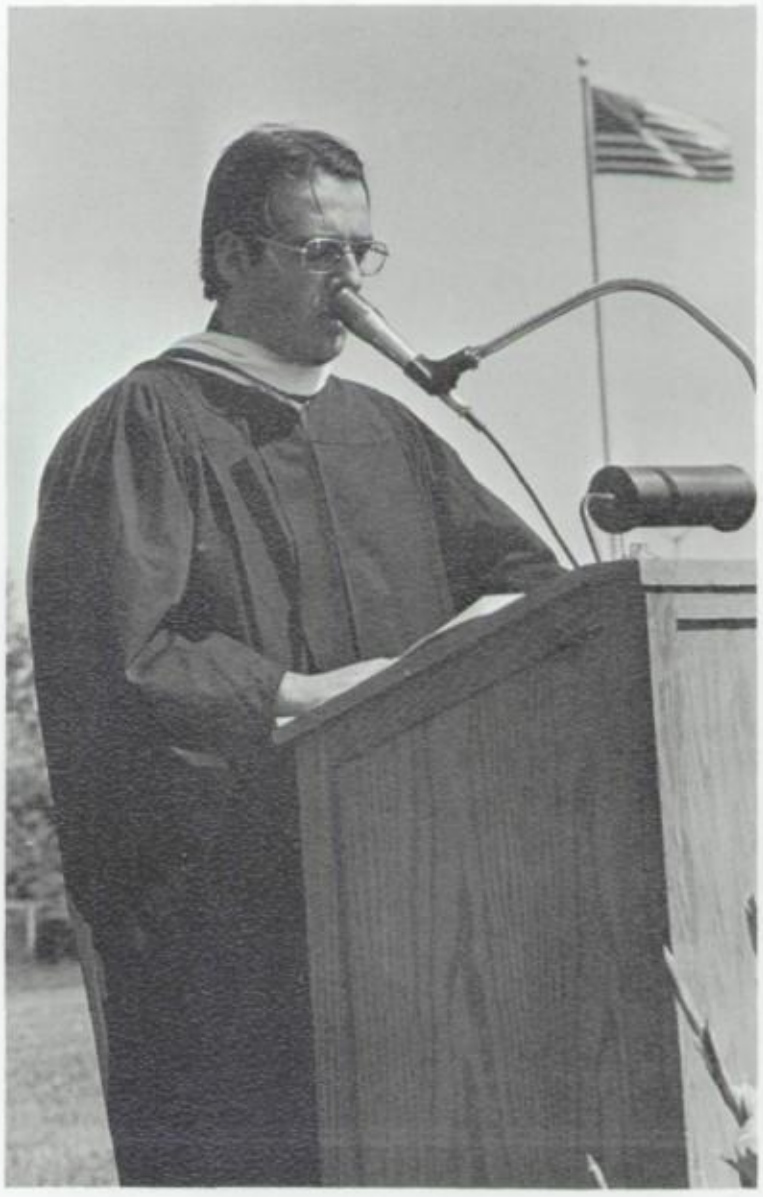
A relaxing Senior Class prior to the ceremonies.



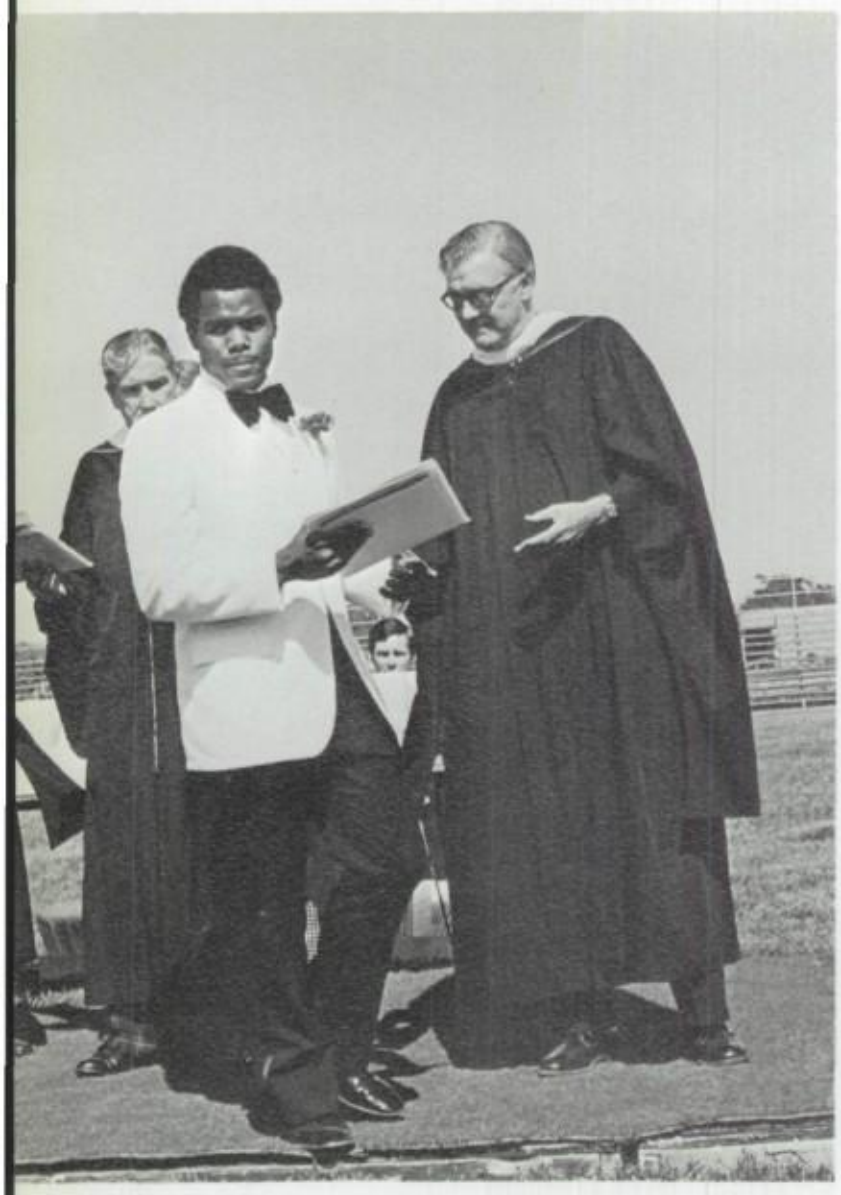
The annual graduation address is delivered by Fr. Reinke.



Mr. Roach receives the President's Award from Fr. Reinke.



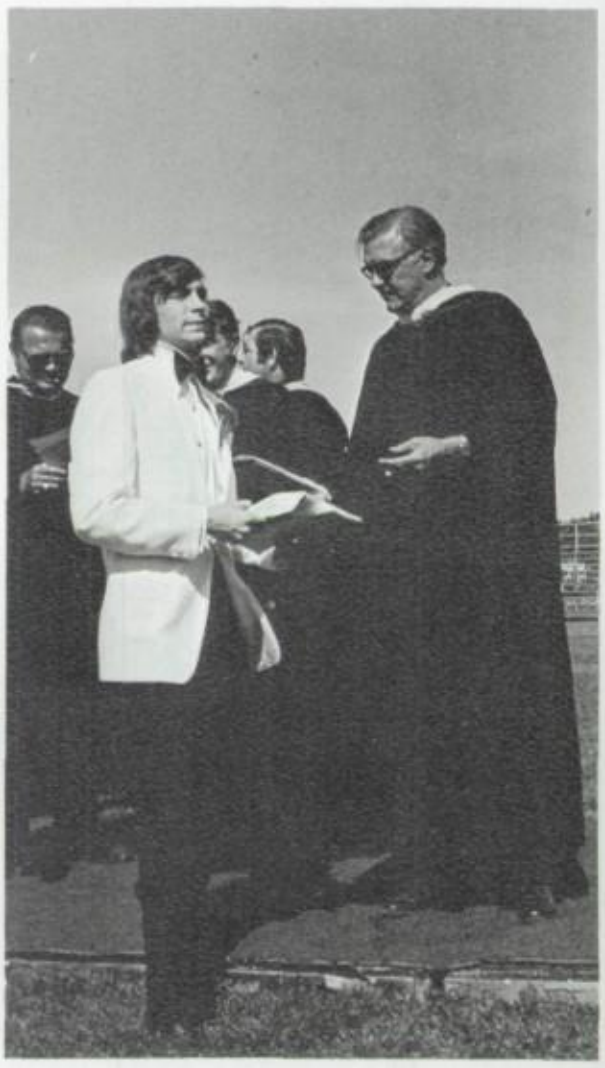
Fr. Arimond reads the list of those meriting graduation.



Joe Bonivel receives his diploma from Fr. Reinke.

Anxiously awaiting for their diplomas.

Fr. Reuter leads the Seniors from the gym to the football field.



Mike Szewczyk walks away with his "prized possession".

YEAR

Through hard work and perseverance this year's yearbook staff has conlcuded its work by presenting you with YEAR 1974. Our objective in recapitulating 1974 at Loyola Academy will hopefully serve as a reminiscent glance at Loyola during its various moments.

The fabrication of YEAR '74 could not have been made possible if it were not for a handful of people. Under the editorship of myself and an assistant editor, Mike Garofalo, we were able to implement a few changes in this year's book. Modifications such as our revolutionary cover, candid faculty pictures, and creative division pages have hopefully enhanced this publication. Credit must also be given to junior editors and photographers Bill Sliwa and Rick Haas. Without their cooperation in providing us with essential pictures and needed assistance, all coordinated attempts in YEAR '74 would go unnoticed.

I can truthfully say that this yearbook staff has received a great deal of satisfaction and gratification in providing all members of the Academy with a general review of the many facets which comprise Loyola.
